Sounds really simple, right? 8 I don't have a PSP, but that was one of the reasons I really wanted to buy a PSP a long time ago. It's a kind of rhythm game where you have to imitate a sound by pressing the right keys - if you do it successfully, your little characters will do something to get to the level you're on... (um, sorry for the very vague explanation) .. but I'm sure the patapon official site or even youtube would help explain it better... i think the makers of patapon are sony right? si I think there is no chance to have Patapon for Android - but at least something similar? I don't have a PSP, but going back was one of the reasons I wanted a PSP. It is a kind of rhythm game where you have to imitate the sound by pressing the right keys. If you do this successfully, your little characters will do something to convey the level you're on... (um, sorry for my very vague explanation).. but I'm sure the official Patapon site or even YouTube would help explain it better . I think the creators of Patapon are Sony themselves, right? si I think there is no chance to have Patapon for Android - but at least something similar? I'll check it out, I like it too... I wonder if they will officially try to port these games. I think it would go well. of course i have psp n patapon... but i really want it in android too... hahahaha... there is such a game? I loved this game on PSP. It would be good if it was on salePSstore for Xperia devices I like Patapon! I want this game on my phone. OR... wait for Android ppspp (psp emu) to be more stable and support Patapon. Wicked.....I would love Patapo on Android. Sent from my Transformer via an unrelated Tapatalk HD Btw... but thought I should point that out in case they shut it down anytime soon... There's a Patapon 1, 2 and 3 bundle on sale right now for $15 on PSN. All 3 and the best... now running on PS Vita. Unrelated btw... but I think I should keep an eye on it as they are taking it down soon... PSN is currently selling Patapon Pack 1, 2 and 3 for $15. All 3 and the best... now running on PS Vita. I remember the day I bought Patapon 3 when it first came out... I would kill to run it on my Gnex! Sent from my Galaxy Nexus via XDA Premium HD
